Who, me??

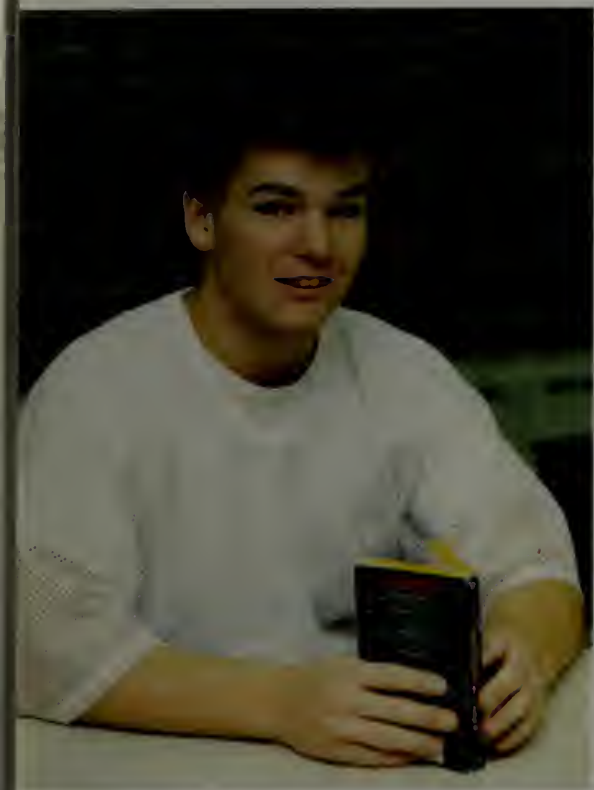

Come on, Dave. You can do it.

*"You Oughta
Be in Pictures"*

We looked good from every angle.
We were athletes. We were scholars.
We were leaders. We were followers.
We studied. We practiced.
We worked. We partied.
And in the end we absolutely shone.
That's why we oughta be in pictures!

G.W. wanna-be.

Help! Here comes Mudda!

Miss Dillon's little friends.

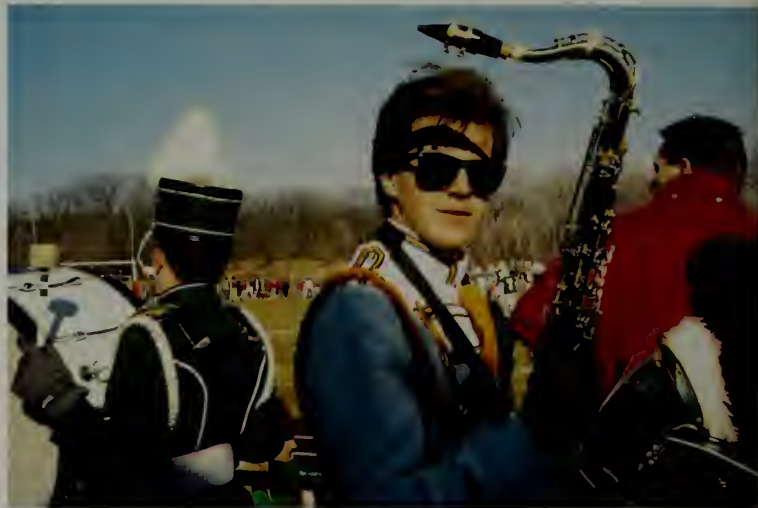

Well you see, it's like this . . .

Green Amazons.

Can I stop smiling now?

Biggie!

Come back here, baby!

Aw, gee, guys . . .

A picture is worth a thousand words!

Gotcha Todd!

Lean on me!

It's a small world after all.

Just try to catch me!

Hmmm, that looks good

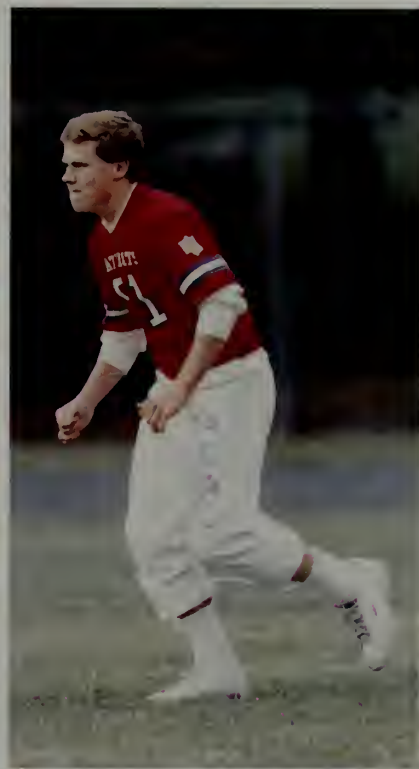

Yes, I play two fall sports.

Oh, what a feeling!

Revvin' up.

What kind of role models are we?

GOODBYE, MR. CHIPS

DEDICATION PETER T. CASE

There are two aspects to the art of teaching. One, with which we are all familiar, involves the transfer of information, facts, figures, and dates from teacher to student. The other aspect, getting to know one's students, is more personal and requires time, understanding, and guidance on the part of the teacher.

The Class of 1989 has chosen to dedicate its yearbook to a teacher who best exemplifies these qualities . . . Throughout our years at Westwood High School, you have been a committed teacher in the classroom, making us eager to learn not only the facts, but also how they relate to the world around us. Always unassuming and more than happy to help, you added warmth to the classroom through your friendly, sincere, and gentle manner. You were always there to lend support and to reassure us of our strengths and abilities. We feel privileged to have sat in your classroom, to have listened to your lectures, and to have had the joy of being friends with you.

All that you have done for the Class of 1989, as well as previous classes, will not be soon forgotten. It is because of your work that we are seated here today, clad in our caps and gowns, ready to face the next chapter in our lives. For twenty-seven years, you have brightened the halls of this school with your smile and your "hello's," and many a gloomy day you have lifted our spirits with your wonderful humor. It is for all this, and for so much more, that we will always remember you.

In your twenty-seven years here, you have earned the respect and admiration not only of your students, but also of your colleagues. You are truly a unique and outstanding person; and indeed, it would be an understatement to say that this school will be at a loss to replace you.

Therefore, with the deepest gratitude, we, the Class of 1989, dedicate Green Years to you, Mr. Peter T. Case.

Mr. Case received a B.A. from Brown University and an M. Ed. from Boston University.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

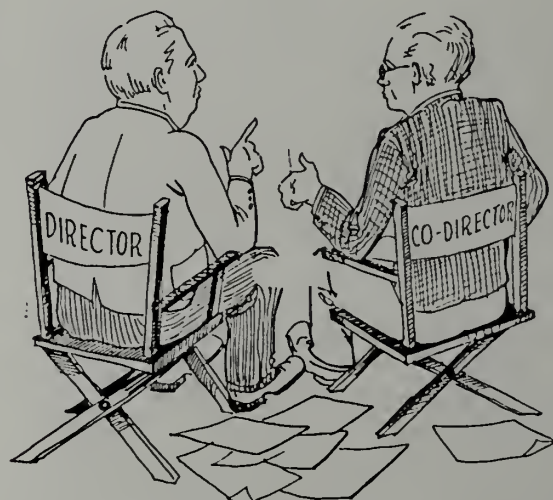

Mr. Phillip F. Flaherty

As your senior year draws to a close, I find myself again writing a message for the Green Years. I know that all of our staff members hope that your experience at Westwood High School has been a rewarding one, and that it has been of material assistance in preparing you to further your education or enter the world of work.

It is our hope that you have come to expect high standards in your own performance, and that you have developed a real concern for the good of the society in which we live and the world of which it is a part. As you further your education and acquire new skills, we will all feel proud in having contributed to your lifelong success.

Best wishes in all your future endeavors.

Phillip F. Flaherty
Principal

ASS'T. PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Mr. Charles W. Flahive

My congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 1989. It has been my fortune to work with so many outstanding individuals and to observe your growth, accomplishments, and spirit. You have indeed enhanced the reputation of your school and community in the classroom, the athletic arena, the music circuit, the theatre, and student government. You will long be remembered for your positive attitude, high academic achievement, and school improvement activities.

As a teacher, friend, and administrator, I was particularly impressed with the charisma and strong leadership displayed by your class officers and the officers of the Student Advisory Board with whom I shared many goals and activities. You possess the skills necessary for success and happiness in the years ahead—thank you and best wishes.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

JULIE MORRISON

As I look upon my fellow classmates, I am amazed at what we as a class, and as individual students, have achieved in our four years. Academically, we pushed ourselves to our highest potential, submitting our minds, and sanity, to numerous honors courses, A.P. exams, and the never-ending college boards. Reflecting our high academic achievements, this year's Academic Decathlon team came in first place in the small school division and moved on to compete in the states. We, as a class, also excelled in the areas of music and athletics. The marching band, after winning numerous awards in their competitions, went on to place third in New England. In sports, all teams displayed great sportsmanship and a winning effort, with the girls' basketball team maintaining the streak by clenching the TVL title, and the football team defeating all odds to emerge victorious over Archbishop Williams, claiming the title Superbowl Champions. Furthermore, many members of the class of '89 became active in the Westwood mentors, a program designed to get high school students involved in their community . . .

. . . In the future, perhaps a member of this class will win a Nobel Prize for world peace. Or maybe a member of this class will volunteer a few hours at a local shelter. I urge each of us to contribute to a solution. For all of our individual efforts will grow together to form a network of ideas and contributions. With a united front, we can conquer any obstacle. For what will make our generation great is if, instead of handing down our unsolved problems, we allow our children to inherit a safe and peaceful world.

In closing, I would like to share a message from the song "These Days" by the band R.E.M. that is very special to me, and which I think applies to all of us today:

"We are young despite the years
We are concerned
We are hope despite the times."

VALEDICTORIAN'S ADDRESS

JEFFREY DOMINA

Our society demands that we frequently make CHOICES that impact out individual lives. It seems that most everything we do as human beings involves distinct options which lead to individual consequences. While some of those results prove trivial in the scope of our complicated lives, others provide for dramatic changes that are often not easily reversed. Naturally, one would hope that he or she might always make the right decision. But, of course, that cannot be possible for the imperfect beings we are. However, we should certainly aspire to make the best decisions we can. The years of practice since the time we were toddlers has given each of us a wealth of experience in making choices of various kinds, as well as provided us with the opportunity to learn how to choose the best option from the many that lie before us.

. . . The form of our lives is ultimately determined by the choices we make and the results that follow them. We are capable, therefore, of skillfully shaping our lives to be what we want them to be by choosing in the best way we know. I would like to conclude by sharing a quote from Walt Whitman that I believe is fitting to this occasion:

"Afoot and light-hearted I take to the open road,
Healthy, free, the world before me,
The long brown path before me leading wherever I choose."

Thank you parents, faculty and administration, and all others who have give us the ability to choose intelligently. Fellow members of the Class of 1989, I wish you all the very best of luck with the many choices you will make in the future, and I hope that you will always be comfortable in making the best decisions you can.

We cannot thank the Secretarial Staff enough for all the service they provide to both teachers and students. Every day they tackle a steady flow of papers and cheerfully answer telephones that ring off the hook. Always willing to lend a helping hand, they never fail to meet the requests of students and teachers; and they do it, of course, with smiles. They are NECESSARY to our lives and to the school to make things run smoothly. Thanks for all your understanding and cooperation.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

Over our four years at Westwood High School, the English Department taught us grammar, literature, and composition as well as lessons about ourselves and each other. We explored the classics and learned the "five-paragraph essay." Then we pushed beyond the "five-paragraph essay" and discovered the finer points of creative and expository writing. Above all, our dynamic and dedicated English teachers always made time for our questions, problems, and concerns about life in general - even if the topics were not even remotely related to class material! The Class of 1989 would like to thank the English Department for all it has done for us; we know we will be well-prepared for whatever lies ahead of us in life!

Mr. Harvey Fischler

Mrs. Karen Tosca

The Math Department at WHS has touched our lives in so many ways. From Geometry to AP Calculus, Algebra to Trig, the teachers have always gone out of their way to help us learn and understand the concepts behind these various maths, however complicated they may have been. In fact, we could always depend on the math seminar being open (and filled with people) when we needed desperate HELP! The department's warm, personal touch inside the classroom was a welcome addition to the complex world of imaginary numbers, limits, and quadratic functions. Computer Science was also a popular subject among the students, one which tested their analytical as well as creative skills. From Basic I to AP Computer Science, the choice of courses was never scarce- there was something to challenge even the brightest of computer whizzes. The Class of 1989 will always be indebted to the Math Department, for they have wonderfully prepares us for the real world of higher math and high- tech.

SOCIAL STUDIES

With the superb guidance and instruction of the Westwood High Social Studies Department, none of us will be "doomed to repeat the mistakes of history!" From ancient Chinese civilization to current events to psychological dream analysis, the variety of social studies courses left no areas untouched. We learned the dates, we studied the causes and effects, and we explored the motivations. Most importantly, however, we discovered the significance of understanding history. Thanks to the motivated teachers of the Social Studies Department, the Class of 1989 will be many of the leaders and responsible citizens of the future!

Mrs. Joanne Staiti

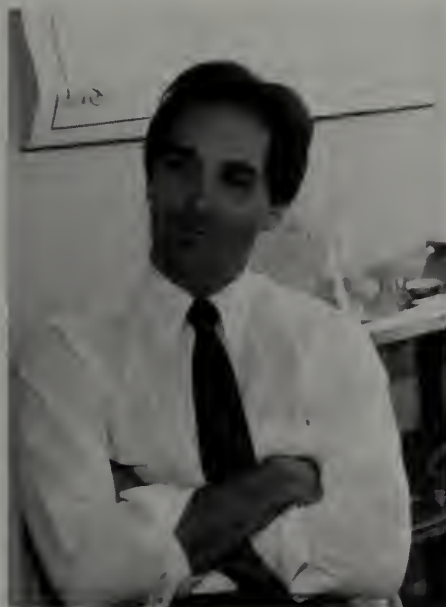

In the past four years, students have collected many fond memories of the Science Department. From Molecular Biology with Mr. Sarris to Physics with Mr. Keegan and Mr. Topalian, the Class of 1989 will always remember the dedication and unlimited energy the department provided in the classroom. We will never forget the fetal pigs, gummy bear explosions, candy cane experiments, coloring books, pith balls, fake bell, or the laser shows. The Class of 1989 thanks the staff for all their support and concern.

Mr. Manoli Dhimitri

Miss Ann Marie Tieri

Mr. William Ducheneau

Mrs. Karolyn Brown

Essential to any education is a foreign language; and through the foreign language department at WHS, students have not only fine-tuned their language skills, but also increased their knowledge of different cultures. Who could forget Madame Doucette's oral drills or conversations in Spanish with Senor Dhimitri? Whether the language is Latin, French, or Spanish, learning another language means "knowing another world."

ART, MUSIC, AND MEDIA CENTER

THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

Mr. Thomas DelSignore
Art Director

Mrs. Judith DesPres

Whether it is Intro. to Ceramics or Studio Art, the art department has never failed to bring out artistic and creative abilities in students, and these past four years are no exceptions. This year alone, WHS produced five winners in local and state art contests. Senior Diana Alvear's sculpture and freshman John Guerini's entry made it all the way to the national art finals! It was the result of Mr. D's and Mrs. DesPres' limitless patience and expert guidance. The Class of 1989 would like to express its gratitude to you both!

Mr. James Giurleo
Music Director

Miss Frances Trisorio

Our four years with the Music Department at WHS have been busy and exciting. The program offers a wide variety of courses from the performing groups to music listening to AP music theory, and all of them are excellent for broadening musical knowledge and talent. The Marching, Concert, and Dance Bands have consistently won praises from all who listen, and the same holds true for the Orchestra, Chorale, and Double Quartet. Who can forget all those field trips to the State House? Congratulations to seniors Denise Pinel, Jay Giurleo, John Hudson, Leslie Tench, and Mythreyi Sharma who made S.E. Sr. Districts this year. The Class of 1989 thanks the Music Department and wishes it continued success in the future.

Mr. Eugene Swezey

Mrs. Virginia McCoubrey

What would we do without the Media Center? There would be no place to hang around during free blocks, no place to go after lunch, and of course, no place to copy over those last-minute English papers. But seriously, without the help of Mrs. McCoubrey and Mr. Swezey, we would never have enjoyed the very tedious tasks of researching topics and finding materials to use for reports. There is no doubt that they have made our lives more organized. The Class of 1989 thanks you all.

BUSINESS/INDUSTRIAL TECHNOLOGY

In the Industrial Technology Department, students have the opportunity to learn useful and practical skills. They learn a variety of techniques through courses offered in graphic arts, architectural and mechanical drawing, wood working, electronics, and electricity. Students anticipate being able to utilize these hands-on experience in the future.

Once again, the Business Department has successfully prepared many students for both college and careers in the business world. Students are able to take courses in typing, word processing, business law, and accounting. The Business Department has also provided specialized business programs to meet the needs of individual students.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Mrs. Anna Runci

Mrs. Carol Rosengarten

The Learning Center is an academic support service provided by two teachers, Mrs. Carol Rosengarten and Mrs. Anna Runci. They are assisted by two tutors, Mrs. Anne Mullen and Mrs. Carolyn Harvey. Students meet in small groups and receive supplementary instruction in the academic areas in which they have special needs.

The Alternative Program, directed by Mrs. Ann Matteson and assisted by Mrs. Susan Scales, provides students with small group instruction in subject areas in a structured and supportive environment.

The Resource Room program provides academic support for Special Needs students. In this setting students are taught language arts, developmental reading, mathematics and science. This program is directed by Mrs. Jean Connolly and assisted by Mrs. Mary Messina.

INTERNATIONAL FACULTY DAY

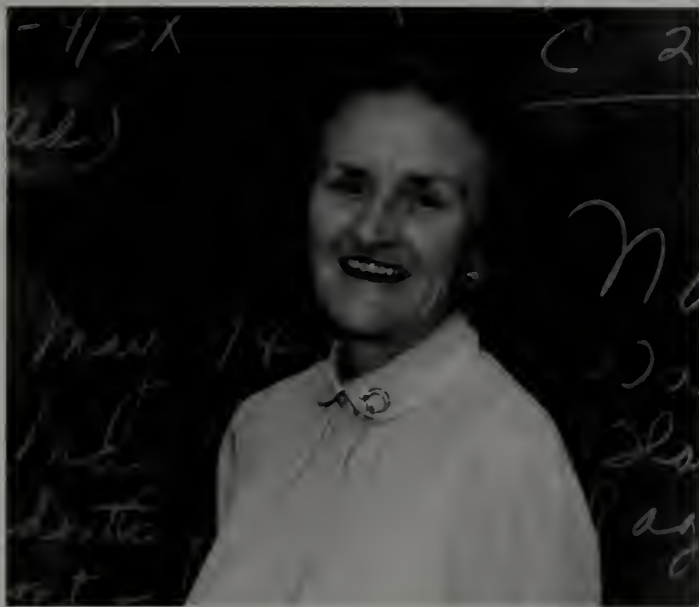

FAREWELL AND . . .

Mr. Manol Dhimitri

Mr. Manol Dhimitri, after countless years of devoted service to WHS' Foreign Language Department, has decided to retire from the teaching profession this year. The school has benefited greatly from this man, who has brought so much warmth and humor to the lives of WHS' students and faculty alike. Hailing from Argentina, where he attended the University of Buenos Aires, Mr. Dhimitri, affectionately known to us as "Senor," added another dimension to the art of foreign language teaching with his authentic skill and fluency. His classes, though challenging, were always a pleasure to attend, and always full of wonderful surprises. His love and enthusiasm for the Spanish language inspired numerous students to pursue it beyond the school level. The girls especially will miss his friendly "Hola, chica!" in the halls, and no longer will his students be able to look forward to the holidays to listen to the melodious sounds of his guitar. Mr. Dhimitri's absence will certainly be felt—he is one in a million. Adios, Senor! The Class of 1989 thanks you sincerely and hopes that the future brings you good luck and contentment in your retired life.

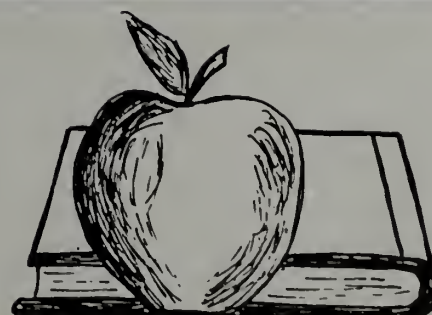

Mrs. Natalie Carey

. . . GOOD LUCK!!

A graduate of Boston University, Mrs. Natalie Carey spent eighteen of her twenty-one years in the teaching profession at the Business Department in WHS, and after a long, dedicated career, she has chosen to retire this year. The students and other faculty members will always remember her caring personality, which she carried over into the classroom and beyond. Her contributions to the school are many. She worked with the AFS and the German Exchange Program for many years. She assisted with the senior class activities, and was herself a senior class advisor. One could always find her doing the "little" things that went relatively unnoticed. As the years went by, her role in the development of the school became invaluable. She served on the In-Service Steering Committee and was the chairman of one of the committees during Westwood's ten-year evaluation. Personal, involved- those were the qualities that marked Mrs. Carey's years at WHS. Both the Class of 1989 and the faculty wish her well and hope she will enjoy her retired life. We will miss her.

Changes

A basket full of photographs:
these 12 years
gone too swiftly.

Pictures of steps captured:
some large,
some small.

The first giant step onto the school bus —
short bobbed hair,
sweater against the chill,
crayons in my bag.

The step to junior high —
the youngest on the bus,
feeling grown-up but scared,
a pencil and a notepad in my pocket.

The last leap to high school —
double sessions,
freshman initiation,
exhausting hours of homework.

Photos of changes seen:
some subtle,
some obvious.

Toothless grins to braces,
Butterfly collars to miniskirts,
Bellbottoms to pegged pants,
Clogs to pumps,
Pigtails to hairspray,
Barbie dolls and jumpropes to boys and cars,
Pin-the-Tail-on-the-Donkey to Spin-the-Bottle,
Show and Tell to Boast and Brag,
The ABC's and 1-2-3's to Spanish and Calculus,

The teachers who wiped our tears to the ones who made us cry,
"Groovey, Awesome, and Like Oh My Gawd!" to
"Die, You are Satanic, and Psych!"

Snapshots of Friendships made:
knotted together,
sometimes untied.

Best friends were made,
and secrets shared.

People moved away,
And others filled the gaps.

The sleepovers with PARENTAL SUPERVISION became all-nighters with spontaneous plans.

Talk of bikes and pets turned to movies and colleges.

Private jokes were made,
and some tears shed too.

The memories of these years
whirl around in my mind,
as if the pictures in the basket had been blown by the wind.

There's only one picture left.
I am in cap and gown,
a graduate leaving after 12 years.

STUDENT ANNOUNCERS

The Student Announcers this year did their best to wake up the school each morning with cheerful voices and expression-packed announcements. Although an occasional "Will Fredrick D. Tootle please report to the office?" slipped into the usual routine, the announcers did a fine overall job of squeezing in last-minute requests, remembering whose morning it was, and getting to school in time for the 8:00 bell. How can we ever forget "Thanks, Jack" and "Thanks, Jen"?

CAREER CENTER AIDES

The Career Center was new this year. Under the direction of Ms. T. O'Brien, students had the opportunity to investigate career information. Student assistants worked in the Career Center during their free blocks. They assisted students visiting the center to locate materials, sign out books, use the various equipment, as well as helping to maintain and update materials.

SCHOOL STORE

The School Store provides refreshments for the student body after school and at various in-school extracurricular activities. It also supplies school spirit items, school supplies, and clothing items. We are a senior class fund raising activity, and we do raise a lot of money for the class! Good luck to next year's entrepreneurs! Thanks to Mrs. Rosen-garten for her support.

Store Managers: Neil McGee, Blake Poreda, Edward Pullis.

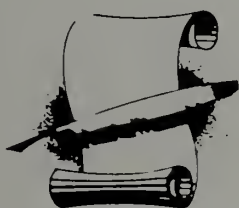

Store Managers: Neil McGee, Blake Poreda, Edward Pullis

STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD

The Student Advisory Board is an organization which serves the student body. Through this group, students are able to express ideas and concerns. The S.A.B. experienced a busy and enlightening year. The organization proposed changes in athletic rules and requested clarification of eligibility for sports. Also, the board fostered the idea of bringing in speakers to the health classes regarding abuse and sexuality. On a lighter note, the student representatives travelled to neighboring high schools in search of ideas for improvements of the cafeteria. The students did have many memorable moments: dining at the Khai Hei, "chatting with the 'seniors,'" and decorating for Club WHS. The group extends its sincere thanks to Mr. Flahive and Mrs. Petrakos for their support and advice. The seniors wish the board the best of luck. Officers this year were Carolyn MacDonald, President and who also served as student liaison to School Committee meetings; Susan Sheppard, Vice-President; Laura Christian, Secretary; Stephanie Schonmetzler, Public Relations Officer; Nicole Caruso, Treasurer; Kevin Carter and Mark Rutstein, Regional Representatives.

Front: Carolyn MacDonald
Back: Susan Sheppard

The Student Council had a productive year leading and helping a variety of activities in the high school. The council was led by an all-male board: Jack Thornton, President; Mike Grady, Vice-Pres.; Mike DiBlasi, Secretary; and Rich Glynn, Treasurer. Our most popular events were the traditional Christmas carnations and Valentine's Day Hershey's kisses. The members also gave their support to other organizations to help make all school events successful ones. Our year ended with a cook-out and volleyball game at Rocky Woods Park with Ranger Rick.

KEY CLUB

Key Club, an organization with membership from all four grades, had a very active year participating and organizing volunteer services in several areas. Very successful were the food can drive, the clothing drive, and, of course, the American Red Cross blood drive. The officers, Denise Buckley, Hania Khuri, Christine Cronin and Susan Sheppard, are grateful to Mrs. Ann Matteson, faculty advisor, for her leadership, support, and encouragement and to all the members who gave of their time and energy who helped make this a great year for the Key Club.

PEER COUNSELING

The Peer Counselors are a group of high school students who want to be involved with younger students and who wish to assist them and inform them of the many types of pressures that can exist during the teen-age years. This year's group worked with junior high students helping them perform in skits and role-play stories and situations dealing with topics such as drinking, drugs, clothes, appearance, etc. We thank Mrs. Linda Hanlon, our advisor, for her dedication, expertise and support.

Students Against Drunk Driving (SADD) is a dynamic organization which strives to make teenagers aware of the perils of driving under the influence of alcohol. Funds generated by caricature sales during the Winter Carnival and a prom ticket raffle enabled us to sponsor a variety of programs. SADD is very visible in the spring just before the prom and graduation. Special assemblies about the dangers of drinking and driving are held for students in all classes. The executive board this year consisted of Michael Collins, Missy Angelicchio, Kristen Keller, Susan Bogue, Jennifer Aquilina, Elizabeth Murphy, and Kurt Johnson. A very special note of appreciation to Mrs. Linda Hanlon for her support and encouragement.

No PARENTHESES

No Parentheses is a magazine featuring Westwood High School students' literary and artistic talents. The magazine, published twice a year, elicits material for its contents by sponsoring contests in poetry, prose, and art. Student staff members do the initial readings of all submitted articles and work as a team in making final selections for NP. We can proudly state that the art and writings submitted are superb and our job is not always that easy! Our staff this year included Edward Nguyen, Senior Editor; Hania Khuri, Art Editor; and Ellen Larkin, Junior Editor. Thanks to Mr. Milan for his creative input, support, and guidance.

ACADEMIC DECATHLON

"Academic Decathlon: A Test of Academic Strength." This year's Academic Decathlon team proved to be quite successful in its efforts. After months of meetings (followed by review at Bergson's), the team captured the small school trophy at the initial competition. Medals were earned by Blake Poreda in Economics, Lynn Duffy and Mark Rutstein in Fine Arts, and Todd Anderson in Math. The clincher, however, was Mythreyi Sharma with 4 out of 5 in the Super Quiz. The team's outstanding performance there earned them a berth in the state competition. Despite the added pressure, the team worked hard and placed thirteenth in the state. Outstanding performances were turned in by Mark Rutstein for his bronze medal in English, Gianni Alvino for 4 out of 5 in the Super Quiz and Lynn Duffy for being overall team high scorer. Special thanks to our "coach", Miss Dillon, our "fans," Miss Perry and Mr. Flaherty, and all the teachers who donated their time to prepare us for the meets. Good luck to next year's team and we'd like to suggest "Westwood High School Academic Decathlon" sweatshirts, T-shirts, sweaters, shoelaces, etc.

 Mrs. Kelsch: Well, guys, it's been a really successful year! After our Fall After Dinner Theater was such a hit, I was worried that our spring musical, "The Boyfriend," couldn't be any better. Sure enough, you surprised me with a terrific show. As if that weren't enough, you came through again to perform in a second After Dinner Theater- a collection of short scenes from larger plays. All that time we spent rehearsing really paid off. Thanks for a great year and good luck to all graduating seniors.

MATH TEAM

The Math Team consists of a group of students who compete against schools in mathematic competitions. Each school has two teams of five people, two seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore, who compete in three levels or rounds, which include arithmetic, algebra, geometry, and trigonometry. Westwood's Math Team had an excellent year, finishing first in the Southern Massachusetts Mathematics League and second in the state. David Sceppa received the most points in the league for any grade, while Craig Foster was the high-scoring sophomore overall. Much was learned this year by all members of the Math Team: Todd learned how to get to Sharon, Denise learned what shape pizza to order, Sceppa discovered his psychic abilities, Craig experienced the feeling of being ignored and Lynn learned how to do "x" problems. Our captains this year were Todd Anderson, Denise Buckley, Lynn Duffy, Chris Kremer, Blake Poreda and Hans Waldman. Thanks to Mr. Pender for a great year and good luck next year, seniors!

CHESS TEAM

The WHS Chess Club had a relatively quiet year participating in only three meets: Sharon, Xaverian Bros., and Dover/Sherborn. However, hopefully, next year will be a different story. Our thanks to Mr. Kevin Burke who continued to support us in spite of our lack of involvement. Where there's life, there's hope!

SPANISH HONOR SOCIETY

SHH, or Spanish Honor Society, is an organization dedicated to the promotion of the Spanish language and culture. In addition to the induction of several new members, our activities this year included the selling of good-luck lollipops during mid-year exams, a Christmas dinner with the French Honor Society, and an ice cream sale in the cafeteria during lunch block. By performing these and other activities we hoped to enlighten other school members of the importance of studying a foreign culture and language.

Officers this year were Denise Buckley, Pres.; Jeff Domina, Vice-Pres.; and Rose VanZadelhoff, Sec.

FRENCH HONOR SOCIETY

The French National Honor Society is an organization designed to honor those students who have excelled in the French language and who participate in school-related activities that will profit all students. This year the society expanded significantly with the induction of many new members and the organization of new activities. Activities and functions included selling ice cream in the cafeteria, acting as guides for Foreign Language Week, planning the annual dinner at Le Bourguignon and tutoring other students in the French language. Officers this year were Stephanie Harkness, President; Edward Nguyen, Vice-President; Lynn Duffy, Secretary; and Jen Aquilina, Treasurer. Many thanks to our advisor, Ms. Tieri, for her support. Good luck to the French National Honor Society in the years ahead.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

National Honor Society is a service organization comprised of students who have maintained high academic standards throughout their high school careers. This year, National Honor Society's main project consisted of volunteer work for Westwood's Council on Aging. Our members donated numerous hours raking lawns, shoveling driveways, grocery shopping, and doing other chores for the elderly members of the Council. The officers this year were Lynn Duffy, President; Mark Rutstein, Vice-President; Carolyn MacDonald, Secretary; and Todd Anderson, Treasurer. The society would like to extend special thanks to our advisor, Miss Dillon, and wish luck to next year's NHS.

MARCHING BAND

The Marching Band completed yet another successful season. Under the qualified leadership of Mr. James Guirleo, Mr. Donald Richard, Steve, Jeff, Steve, Jake, Marcia, and Liz, we tore apart the competition across Massachusetts and ultimately placed third in the New England Scholastic Band Association finals. This year was marked by pavement, papering, and pumpkin-picking. We were proud to carry our football team all the way to the Super Bowl victory. Congratulations, guys! Thanks to Denise, Neil and the officers.

MUSICAL GROUPS

The Music Department has many reasons to be proud: Marching Band, Concert Band, Dance Band, and Double Quartet are some of them. These musical groups, in addition to the Chorale and Orchestra, have won much praise for their outstanding quality. In fact, they almost sound like professionals! All these groups practice with great commitment, and the results have showed that in the annual winter concert, honors concert, and pops concert. We wish the students of the music department all the best in the future!

GIRLS' AND BOYS' STATE

Girls' and Boys' State both proved to be very educational programs. The students who attended learned a lot about our government through excellent speakers and through the formation and participation in mock town, city, and state governments. The program also included the formation of political parties, as well as primary and general elections. The week was hectic, interesting, rewarding, and demanding. Representatives from WHS were Sean Jones, Jack Thornton, Susan Corcoran, Carolyn MacDonald, and Jennifer Keller.

NATIONAL MERIT COMMENDED STUDENTS

WHS is very proud of those students who received letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Program in recognition of outstanding performance on the 1987 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT). Their hard work, intelligence, and dedication was noted at a special dinner in October.

PRESIDENTIAL CLASSROOM

Four students, James Carty, Nancy Conners, Jeffrey Domina and Julie Morrison, traveled to Washington, D.C., during February vacation to participate in "A Presidential Classroom for Young Americans." The program promotes knowledge of and involvement in our democratic society. The busy week provided an opportunity to learn about the government, meet national leaders, make friends, and see our capital. Everyone had a great time.

GREEN YEARS

A theme gives a yearbook continuity. That is why the Green Years staff decided to have one this year. After many suggestions and discussions, we settled for a movie theme. That way, we, the Class of 1989, will be able to remember and reflect not only upon the events of our senior year, but also upon the popular trends and events that shaped our years in high school. The entire yearbook staff deserves credit for the making of this book of memories- after all, it is the product of the diligent work of many individuals. All those afternoons after school cropping pictures, typing copy, redoing layouts, thinking of movie titles- those hours were not spent in vain, guys! We got off to a slow start but through the course of the year, the pace picked up as the events kept happening. Even though we did not have any fund-raisers, the Buy-A-Line was very popular, and due to the tremendous work of the business managers, the numerous ads we received helped to defray the cost of the yearbook. It was a long road to the finish, but it was an enjoyable and memorable one. Last, but not least, we, the yearbook staff, would like to thank Mrs. Fran Petrakos, our advisor, for all the time, energy, encouragement, help, and support she has provided us this past year. We sincerely appreciate all the unrecognized work and behind-the-scenes efforts she has put into this year's book. Without her, we would never have completed it on schedule. Thanks, Mrs. Petrakos, for all that you have done to make Green Years 1989 a success!

Green Years 1989 is a reality- we hope you are pleased with the results!

SUPER BOWL

THE DREAM

No one believed it could be done.
 Just play the game and have some fun.
 Experts thought we'd finish last,
 too small to hit and not very fast.
 To even think this was a Super Bowl team,
 was far beyond a simple dream.
 The Westwood dynasty would finally end,
 losing seasons would be the new trend.
 There were believers though very few,
 a coach, a team, deep down we knew.
 So we started camp with just one mission,
 to end the season in the top position.
 We grew each day as a football team.
 Then in Oakmont began our dream.
 This game was labeled not much of a test,
 but an eleven point win put no one to rest.
 Then came Dover which would remove all doubt,
 Warren would shine in a Wolverine route.
 Stronger and stronger as the season progressed,
 by the Medfield game we were a team possessed.
 This was a game to prove people wrong,
 and have all of Westwood singing our song.
 Our team was celebrating by the end of the game,
 and finally our fans were doing the same.
 One more team would stand in our way,
 Arch rival Holliston on Thanksgiving day.
 While the turkeys were cookin', Warren was too,
 With four touchdown passes and state record, 32.
 On to the task they said couldn't be done.
 We listened to them and are having our fun,
 For we knew the secret to accomplish our dream,
 Play with your hearts, play as a team.
 Archies was tough, but people would see,
 That tougher than them was our Wolverine D.
 Mackinnon, O'Leary would stalk them like prey,
 And the man known as Howlett would have his worst day.
 While the Bishop fans were quiet and seated,
 A quick burst by Despo was all that was needed.
 Faces were glowing as we heard the gun sound,
 It was the end of the season and our dream had been found.
 At this point in time emotions were high,
 and when I hugged my friends I started to cry.
 I looked around and could only see,
 how much these guys meant to me.
 The memories will linger for the years to come,
 The best team in history will be our label to some.
 As we look back it was a special team,
 One with pride one with a DREAM.
 No one believed it could be done,
 Well believe it now, we're second to none.

The football season started out slow but we soon readily progressed through the season. We accomplished what we wanted - cheering at the games, participating in the pep rallies, and trying to boost school spirit. Super Bowl at Nickerson Field was the best! Basketball season was a little harder as we had new recruits, but we got better and we eventually had a good season. Thanks to our coach Diane Runci for all her help and good luck to next year's cheer leading team.

SOCCER

The Girls' Varsity soccer team was led by tri-captains Jane Sweeney, Andrea Dorr, and Sue Sheppard. The girls earned a tournament seed ending their season on a 10-6-2 count. In tournament play the Wolverines defeated Mt. Alvernia 2-1. Continuing on, Westwood was beaten by #1 ranked Rockland. The captains would like to thank all the members of the team, Mr. Wright, and Mr. Niles for a great season. We would also like to thank all of the parents for their love and support over the years.

The Wolverine Soccer Team was better than the record shows. Under our rookie coach, Richard Scafati, we had a 5-13 record. The highlights of the season were beating Medfield, (our ex-coach's team), beating Holliston, and the coach's haircut. Dave Scally, the complainer, came on strong at the end of the season, demonstrating his ability to play sweeper. Tom Lee, even with an ankle injury, showed his great athletic ability at the center half-back position. Rich Glynn, TVL All-Star, had a good year up front for the Wolverines. Dick had 8 goals on the year and Mike Grady demonstrated his versatility this season as he played all ten positions on the field. This was a young Wolverine team that promises to do well in the future.

"Noonan, nice hair Tom, waffleiron hair-do. Get your trophy yet? Coach has two kids. Could you be off sides any more! TVL All-Star, how's football? Fine, Dave, you play sweeper!"

We had a great season, falling only three times, unfortunately twice to the dreaded, obnoxious Medway and once to Bellingham. Finishing second - tied with Bellingham - in the Tri-Valley League, we headed into the tournament. In the first round we cruised past the farmers, Norfolk Aggie, but once again Medway got lucky and knocked us out in the semi-finals. Although it was an upsetting loss, we still had a fun season.

Although the team did not have a banner year, most people saw drastic improvements on their times. The team found itself against tough competitors from Dover, Ashland, and Holliston, as well as Medfield and Bellingham. The lack of depth and experienced runners appeared to be the two main factors that deterred the team in each of its meets. However, the season proved to be a rebuilding year for the harriers, and they should be in superb form for the next cross-country season.

FIELD HOCKEY

The Girls' Field Hockey Team surpassed most peoples' expectations this year, finishing the season with a 5-7-2 record, the best ever for a Wolverine field hockey squad. Under the leadership of captains Lynn Duffy and Kris White, the girls came up with an exciting victory at Dover-Sherborn in their first game and continued the winning ways in their next match, a night game at Ashland. The team also posted two wins against Hopkinton, another victory over Ashland, and tied both Medway and Medfield. Special thanks from the seniors to our coach, Gina Villa, for all of her hard work, the assistant coach Mary and all those parents and students who supported us during the season. This season each swimmer achieved her personal best. Everyone worked hard and improved with every meet. Despite the small size of our team, we came up with a big victory and were very proud of our win. Although it was the last year for seniors Denise, Melissa, Hania, Suzanne and Kara, it was definitely the best and most memorable year we had! We would like to thank Jamie for being not only a terrific coach but a great friend, too. We wish the best of luck to all the swimmers next year.

The Boys' Swim Team had a much improved season this year, winning 4 meets and tying 1, with each member doing well individually. Freshman Jeff Patterson broke the school record in the 500 Freestyle and was part of the relay team of Capt. Sean Jones, P.K. Fitzgerald, and Chris Theodore that went to South Sectionals and the State Meet. Good luck to next year's team, and good luck to the only '89 Clam!

The Winter Track season went very well. Hard work and a strong sense of competitiveness paid off with a final record Of 3-2-1. Our team was relatively young, consisting of many freshmen and sophomores, but many improvements in performance were achieved. Coach Tom Kerrigan demonstrated first class leadership and next year, the team should be stronger and more competitive in the league. Overall, the season was definitely a success. Thanks to everyone for a productive and enjoyable season!

We ended up with a poor record of 5-15 but it did not reflect our talents. There were some incidents throughout the year that could have hampered the teams' play: Warren sending Dunn away in an ambulance, Ed breaking his finger from an unsuspecting pass, and Reissfelder pushing Glynn through a window. Although we didn't do as well as we wanted to, there are a lot of up-coming juniors and sophomores with talent who will hopefully get the basketball program back on its feet. We wish the best of luck to next year's team.

Once again, for the 17th straight season, we captured the TVL title without much of a problem. We finished second in the first ever Christmas tourney at Westwood, beating Brockton and losing to Foxboro in overtime by one point. In March, we headed into the state tournament, meeting North Attleboro in the first round. After beating them, we traveled to the Cape to meet Sandwich, who we also beat, despite the obnoxious fans. Case was next on the list, although we're still not sure how they got there. After an easy win over them, we headed to the South Sectional finals against Walpole. Unfortunately, the outcome was different than the previous games, but we gave it a good fight. We had a great season and hope that next year is better for the upcoming seniors. Good Luck!

HOCKEY

We ended up with an overall record of 14-4-3 with all four losses coming from non-league games. We won the Tri-Valley league title for the sixth year in a row. We went 9-0-3 in the league, 1st place, one point over Holliston, but later losing to them in the EMass Semi-Finals in a heartbreaker 4-3. We weren't picked to win anything; but, yet again, we surprised many - but not ourselves. Winning hockey games is a tradition at Westwood High, and that's all we did - we carried on the tradition!

SKI TEAM

This year the Ski Team had an extremely good season. Through both on and off slope training, the team improved immensely this winter. Breaking all previous records for Westwood High, the '88-'89 Ski Team for both boys and girls acquired more points than ever before. Four of the top skiers went on to compete at the Massachusetts State Finals; and overall, each skier improved greatly. Next year the team hopes to continue its development and become a more powerful contender in the Mass. Bay East League.

BASEBALL

The varsity baseball team finished a rocky season with the record of 8-12. One highlight of the season was a 5-3 win over Holliston, which prevented the Panthers from winning the TVL title. The team started off slowly losing to Foxboro 21-2, but then they proceeded to play good baseball until they faced the mighty Millis Mohawks who knocked them out of the tournament. The baseball team has a bright future with many returning starters and the JV team will also offer a few talented ball-players to help the big club. Nicknames: Bomber . . . Pinwheel . . . Narce . . . The Boys' Tennis Team had a great season, posting a 12-2 record (losing only to D-S) and finishing second in the Tri-Valley League. Captains Blake Poreda and Gregg Dixon led us to the tournament, and despite rolling over North Andover, we lost to the reigning and eventual winner, Andover. At the end of our season, Gregg Dixon and Marc vanZadelhoff (13-1) were named TVL All-Stars for Singles while Blake Poreda and Bill Hall were named All-Stars for Doubles. The team would like to thank Coach Greene for all his time and effort. We will miss him next year. "... You know ... Don't cry ... I do overhead ..."

Under the superb direction of first-year coach Rena Lieberman, and the outstanding leadership of senior Co-captains Denise Buckley and Mythreyi Sharma, the girls' netters posted an excellent 15-1 record this season, recapturing the TVL title from arch-rival Dover-Sherborn. The team went on to post-season play, after a week's delay due to rain, and lost in the semifinals to a tough, but very arrogant Andover, as most of the girls could tell you.

Individual achievements included first singles player and team MVP Liz Murphy's three-set victory over D-S' much-talked about Karen Stillwell, team Unsung Hero Mythreyi Sharma's undefeated record at third singles during the regular season, and first doubles', Denise Buckley and Kara Cooney, grueling three-set win against Medfield in the opening game of the season. It's no wonder that all four were named Daily Transcript All-Stars, with Liz Murphy as this year's MVP. Second singles player Lesley Bride and the second doubles duo of Kristina Caulfield and Amy Friedman also deserve special mention for their great seasons, and especially for their display of excellent tennis throughout the season. Congrats!

There were a lot of people who deserved recognition for all the support and cheers they provided the players while sitting patiently on the sidelines, not to mention FOOD and DRINKS!! Team member Marlene Buckley and new members which included juniors Jean Lawless, Tracy Yobaccio, and Amy Zouranjian, sophomore Ann Connolly, and freshmen Diane Costello, Lisa Nicholas, Debbie Ringel, and Lynn Santepietro, added depth and talent to the team. They were all an integral part of it, and contributed considerably to its success. With five of the seven starters returning, next year's team promises to carry on Westwood's winning ways. Good luck next year, gals!

The Boys' Spring Track Team demonstrated great effort this season while posting a 2-5 season. Considering that the squad was quite young this year, the team achieved a highly respectable record. Many young team members displayed valuable talent, and all members of the team worked admirably as a unit. Special praise should be given to senior captains Paul Canelos and Tom Bean who went on to score in the Mass. State Track Meet. Coach Hargreaves and Assistant Coach Kerrigan were encouraging leaders and fine people to work with. Thanks again to everyone for their hard work and for an exciting season. Good luck to the team next year!!!

The Girls' Spring Track Team was led this year by co-captains Andrea Dorr and Lynn Duffy. In spite of winning only one meet, the girls displayed much enthusiasm and team effort throughout the season. Many thanks both to our head coach Ms. Mary MacDonald and to our field events coach Mr. Paul Tucelli.

GOLF

We finished the season with a record of 9-5 and a berth in the tournament. The only team member who made the all-star team was Rich Glynn, who was also named team MVP. We had a fun and enjoyable season and would like to wish next year's team the best of luck. We would also like to thank Mr. Kodzis for all his help, time and efforts.

RALLY/BONFIRE/DANCE

On November 12, 1988, the Westwood Community in Action sponsored a fun-filled evening for the students of Westwood High School. Many people gathered in the high school parking lot for a delicious barbecue and also to watch as Westwood held its first bonfire in many years. After some enthusiastic speeches from the captains of the sports' teams, the students moved into the cafeteria for a dance. Colorful decorations and loud music added to the excitement of the evening. Thanks to all those who helped to make that evening such a success.

HOMECOMING

After last minute and hectic preparations, ballots for the Homecoming Court were drawn up the day before the big event. At the notorious (and victorious) Thanksgiving Day football game, the Homecoming Court was presented at halftime. Seniors Jennifer Tretter and Jane Sweeney were escorted by their fathers. Lisa Tunney, chosen as the 1988 Homecoming Queen, was escorted by her brother. It was a cold and sunny morning, yet a memorable one for all - students, parents, and friends.

FRESHMAN YEAR

We were the Class of 1989, but the calendar indicated that it was only 1985. Being only freshmen, we had three years before we could enjoy our senior status. Although we arrived to school in style in our big yellow limos, the first couple weeks of school were pretty scary, for we spent them getting lost in the hallways trying desperately to find Mr. Stack, Mr. Pender, Salty, Pufee, and Mrs. Petrakos' rooms. Upperclassmen didn't help the situation, either, for they constantly screamed "freshmen" at us and gave us wrong directions to our classrooms. Freshman girls developed severe crushes on the senior boys, who didn't even know the girls existed.

After a couple of weeks, things settled down and election of class officers took place. Kris White led the class as Pres., Carolyn MacDonald was V-P, Lynn Duffy was Sec., and Jennifer Aquilina was Treas.

And of course, who could forget initiation week? It was our class which ended this tradition in style. First, the volleyball players were seen walking down the hallways wearing diapers and sucking on pacifiers. Then there was the soccer team, in their fishnets and bathing caps, wearing absolutely no makeup. Next came the field hockey team with their high heels and fishnets, wearing those sexy skirts. Their dance on the mezzanine definitely made all heads turn. But, first prize definitely went to the girls' swim team. Hania, Mel, Sue, Kara, Tanya, and Denise could be seen lying on the hallway floor in their bathing suits and caps, trying to swim down the hallway but actually getting nowhere. A couple of swimmers were even spotted in the lower courtyard barking like dogs. Boys' sports also held their own initiations. The boys' soccer team wore their uniforms and carried around soccer balls while the football team dressed in shoulder pads and helmets. A couple players were seen having lockers slammed into their helmeted heads. After this week, we settled down and got our heads into the games. Sue Sheppard made three varsity teams while Kevin Carter set the record for a mile. Lynn Duffy and Kris White played on varsity field hockey and all the swimmers made varsity swimming. Because the coaches of the football team did not play the freshman boys, the team lost to Holliston and did not make it to the Super Bowl. That would come later.

Then there were the band members. Every day they serenaded the sports teams as they practiced in the parking lot. Their hard work paid off for they won several competitions and prizes.

November arrived and it was time for Homecoming Week. Our class displayed its astounding class spirit by placing last in the categories of Hawaiian Day, Clash Day, Hat Day, Pajama Day and even Green Pride Day. Kristen McCusker was elected to represent our class in the homecoming court. The week ended with a Halloween dance, which was a tremendous success.

By spring time, we were all used to being freshmen, but couldn't wait until sophomore year. Although few people went to upperclass parties, we always found something fun to do on weekends. I think the entire freshman class could be seen every Friday night at the movie theater.

Prom time finally arrived and each freshman girl, after watching "Sixteen Candles" a million times, desperately wished a senior boy would ask them to the prom. Westwood did make it to the screen as the juniors and seniors modeled prom attire on "Good Morning America."

The school year finally came to an end and we all made it safely through freshman year. The year ended with a bang as Andrea Dorr hosted her end-of-the-year pool party. The next day, the class headed to Horseneck Beach for fun in the sun. As summer came, we could finally call ourselves sophomores as we were one step closer to being seniors.

- Jennifer Aquilina

SOPHOMORE YEAR

We arrived at Westwood High School in anticipation of our "higher" status. But, soon we realized that we were still underclassmen. Well, at least we were not freshmen.

Led by our fearless President Denise Buckley and her staff- Vice-president Mythreyi Sharma, Secretary Carolyn MacDonald, and Treasurer Jen Aquilina, we took on the '86-'87 school year.

The first new freedom we experienced was free blocks, but some of us were reassigned to studies for disciplinary reasons. Some sophomores, "the bananas," struggled through a year of Molecular Biology. This group must have been really tough because they forced Mr. Sarris into retirement. We all labored through Mrs. Kelsch's Oral English class. Eventually we were able to speak in front of groups without getting nervous. We also learned all about Health Education. At the end of the semester, most of the class was well versed in the areas of sex, drugs, and all the diseases that accompany them.

The sports teams had a good year and the sophomore class was well-represented. The football team, led by our own Greg Warren, made it all the way to the Super Bowl, only to lose a close game. Girls' volleyball was the surprise of the season as they advanced all the way to the state finals. The girls also kept the undefeated TVL basketball streak alive with help from Karyn McCoy and Carolyn Reissfelder, and the hockey team won another TVL title. Skip Child, Brian Welby, and Todd Anderson were around to celebrate. The most impressive group was the JV basketball team. Made up of all sophomores, their undefeated season showed hope for the future.

In the area of music, the department had another stellar year as the Marching Band placed third in the NESBA finals. Sophomores in that group of musicians included Ed Nguyen, Denise Pinel, Neil McGee, Linda Randlett, Jeff Domina, and many more. In the spring the first 1920's Variety Musical Show was presented by the music and drama departments.

As the end of the year rolled around, we prepared for our annual beach trip. Unfortunately, the weather did not cooperate, and our sophomore year ended with rain. We did have one consolation, though. When we returned to school next year, we would be able to enjoy our new-found status as upperclassmen.

- Allan Becker

CLASS
HISTORY

JUNIOR YEAR

Our days of being called "those stupid freshmen," and "those lowly sophomores," were over. We could not officially call ourselves, "upperclassmen." Yes, we were the students you saw cruising the streets of Westwood with our newly acquired licenses. Yet along with being a junior came a year full of more responsibilities and a year filled with academic frustrations. But, always there to guide our class were our spirited class officers: Jack Thornton, Pres.; Sue Corcoran, V-P; Lynn Duffy, Sec.; and Kevin Carter, Treas.

It all started in September when we discovered the no mercy worlds of Mr. Brown and Miss Congdon. Night after night, there were papers to prepare, tests to study for, posters to design. This was the year of the test, the one that counted. You name the test; we trudged through it.

As juniors, we gave strength to varsity sports teams. Whether it was in a losing effort, such as the Thanksgiving Day football game against Holliston, or a winning effort, such as the volleyball team's trek through the tournament, both boys and girls consistently displayed their competitive edges. The girls' soccer team made it to post-season play, but lost a rough one to Marian. Both cross-country and girls' swim team had good seasons as well. Field hockey had one of the best seasons ever, even though they did not make it to the tournament. In winter sports, the boys' hockey team captured the TVL title, and continued all the way to the semifinals. Similarly, the girls' hoop team not only maintained the 14-year streak, but proceeded to the semifinals where they lost a close one to Foxboro. Winter track and boys' swim team also had very competitive seasons. Meanwhile, all the excitement carried over into the spring sports, where the baseball team made it all the way to the South Sectional semifinal, and the girls' tennis team made it to the quarterfinals in the tournament, despite relinquishing the TVL crown to rival Dover-Sherborn. Both the boys' and girls' track teams made headway as well. All in all, it was, as usual, a good year for WHS sports.

The area of extracurricular activities was not dull either. The junior class was finally able to make a decent placing for participation in some of the Homecoming Week days. The lovely Lisa Tunney was chosen to be the representative from our class on the Homecoming Court. The Marching Band kept piling up the trophies, and everyone was very impressed with the quality of all the musical groups, from Chorale to Concert Band. Many participated in the year's musical variety show, "Command Performance."

We thought we contributed to WHS in a very positive manner. But the newspapers seemed to think otherwise. This year, our school was splashed all over the front pages in papers in Alaska, California, Florida, and even Nebraska. We were described as a "party town" that was filled with alcohol and drug abusing teenagers. Well, we wanted to prove them wrong. So, the senior class organized the first Safe Rides program. In addition, the Youth Commission started Sexual Abuse prevention and awareness plays which were extremely informative. The Teen Center, a big hit with the Junior High students, was run by student volunteers from the high school. We did everything possible to improve our tarnished image.

On a lighter note, the mentors held their first Winter Cotillion with none other than Sandra Imbornone as Queen. The highlight of the annual lip-sync was "Kiss" played by Jack Thornton, Tom Bean, Tom Brady, and Craig Dalrymple. Unfortunately, they came in second place.

Well, spring rolled around in the midst of all the activities. We said "bon voyage" to the seniors Bermuda and Europe-bound, and loafed around April vacation. The prom this year was held at the Sheraton Tara and the junior court was wonderfully represented by Lisa Tunney, Tanya Massaro, Linda Randlett, and Sue Sheppard. Everyone knows what festivities went on that weekend down at the Cape.

Class Day and Graduation arrived soon after that. The seniors left, making us official seniors. Senior year was just around the corner, and we knew it would be a time for planning, reflection, and enjoying.

- Mythreyi Shama

SENIOR YEAR

This is the year we anticipated as freshmen. In some respects it was the same as our previous three years — standardized tests, midyears, finals, and Saturday afternoon football games — but in many other ways we met entirely new experiences and challenges. After all, who could ever forget college applications, the senior class trip, or the famous Powderpuff football game?

As seniors, we were led by Pres. Julie Morrison, V-P Susan Sheppard, Sec. Carolyn MacDonald, and Treas. Kevin Carter.

The traditional activities started up with the Senior Class Breakfast and Powderpuff game. Pezo's Playmates, Shea's Sweet Things, Fumba's Fantasies, and Warren's Wild Women put up a competitive struggle but ended up losing by . . . well, never mind, we got killed. Needless to say, the huge pigpile at the end of the game nearly paralyzed the thrashing the girls received on the football field.

Next, Homecoming Week proved to be different from any other year, seeing as we, as a class, displayed more school spirit than ever before. The deserving Lisa Tunney represented our class as Homecoming Queen, and Westwood clinched the victory at the Homecoming game.

The football team went on to capture the Division IV Superbowl title, beating Archbishop Williams by a revengeful score of 13 to 0. Our other teams and organizations throughout the year also showed strength and commitment, as girls soccer, volleyball, marching band, hockey, girls hoop, and Academic Decathlon all advanced to post-season action.

A new activity this year, sponsored by Westwood Community in Action, was the very successful Bonfire/Rally/Dance. There around the baseball diamond, students and residents of all ages gathered to witness the town's largest fire since 1980. Other successful experimental activities this year included the upcoming All-Night Graduation Party and the Winter Carnival, in which school organizations individually sponsored events like the Club MTV dance, Lip Synch, volleyball tournament, and underwater tricycle races. In addition, annual favorite activities like the Winter Cotillion and spring musical (this year "The Boyfriend") enjoyed overwhelming success as well.

All too soon we realized that our senior year was drawing to a close, and we faced mixed emotions. On the one hand we experienced a new sense of trepidation and anxiety because we knew we would be leaving the familiar and moving on to a new step in our lives, but on the other hand we looked forward to our remaining senior activities and time with our friends. The Senior Class Banquet was enjoyed by all with the possible exception of Dr. Gearon, who was bombarded by hordes of lipsticked boys and necktied girls in Novel Quest. And thanks, Jack, for a memorable slide show narration of our earlier years.

May 19 marked the day of our junior-senior prom, which was held at the Sheraton Tara in Braintree. The court consisted of Felicia Barnes, Lesley Carver, Denise Pinel, and Diana Alvear, and Sandra Imbornone was then crowned queen. The following day, we headed off to different parts of the Cape to continue on with our class's notorious party image. Although this reputation was not publicized as much this year as last year, the Bahama "brouhaha" and one particular Westwood student screamer will not soon be forgotten.

All in all, our senior class and other high school memories will be remembered forever. As we once anticipated being seniors, we now anticipate being freshmen again and creating new memories in the next step of our lives. Good luck and goodbye, Class of 1989.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS

During the past few years, under the direction of Mr. D. Beurman, Westwood High School has been fortunate to have had a program of distinguished speakers. The speakers have been both exciting and informative, giving the students practical advice on careers and popular issues. This year the topics ranged from politics to sports and each program was enjoyed by all who attended.

GREEN PRIDE WEEK

The end of September was "Kick-Off Week"

A new school event, or so to speak. On Tuesday people wore all kinds of hats on their heads,

Then Wednesday, the students looked like they belonged in their beds.

Half the week had been marked by pajamas and hats,

On Thursday, Clash Day, no one's colors matched.

Finally, it was Friday, the day set aside

For everyone to show his or her Green Pride.

People in all different shades of green

Were milling about on the mezzanine.

The reason for all the noise and hub-bub

Was the chance to sign up for activities and clubs.

The end of the day was right up our alley

As we got out of class for the Fall Sports Pep Rally

Each team was represented and "Good Luck's" said

Best wishes to all for a great year ahead!

THE BOYFRIEND

Activity: "The Boyfriend"

Advisors: Mrs. Stephanie Shute Kelsch, director; Miss Frances Trisorio, vocal director; Mr. James Giurleo, orchestra director; Melissa Delconte, student/assistant director; Lynn Duffy, choreographer.

Summary: This year marked the return of the full-scale musical, with singing, dancing, acting and one continuous storyline. "The Boyfriend" is an English musical set in the French Riviera at an exclusive girls' boarding school during the Roaring '20's. It is a romantic farce based on the classic theme of boy meets girl, boy loses girl, and boy wins back girl. The directors had a difficult time deciding who to place in certain roles, as the turnout for auditions was overwhelming. Not to mention, they had never seen so much talent! But eventually, the cast was set, and rehearsals began after Christmas break. In the lead roles were seniors Neil McGee as Tony Brockhurst and Mythreyi Sharma as Polly Browne. Other seniors included Jay Guirleo and Patty Flaherty as Lord and Lady Brockhurst, Tony's parents; Denise Pinel, Jeanne Heneberry, and Susan Corcoran as Maisie, Fay, and Dulcie, Polly's girlfriends; and Kristin McCusker as Hortense, the girls' maid. The rehearsals, which lasted three months, were fun but a lot of work- learning blocking, memorizing lines, and remembering songs and their movements required much time and cooperation. Special recognition should also go to all the behind-the-scenes people, the set crew, who spent countless hours cleaning the auditorium, and making sets and props. And of course, without the patience, tolerance, superb direction, and comic relief of Mrs. Kelsch, this production would never have been the smashing success that it was. "The Boyfriend" played to two packed houses on April 7 and 8, 1989, at the WHS auditorium.

"Look Percy, the latest model."

"What a lovely day for a dip in the sea!"

"All we want is a room in Bloomsbury."

"Allo, Allo? Is this Monsieur Gaston, the costumier?"

"From Nice? Oh, oh dear!"

"No, Hubert! We'll BOTH have a talk with her later!"

"You don't want to play with me blues!"

"Presenting the rage of the continent, Pepe and Lolita!"

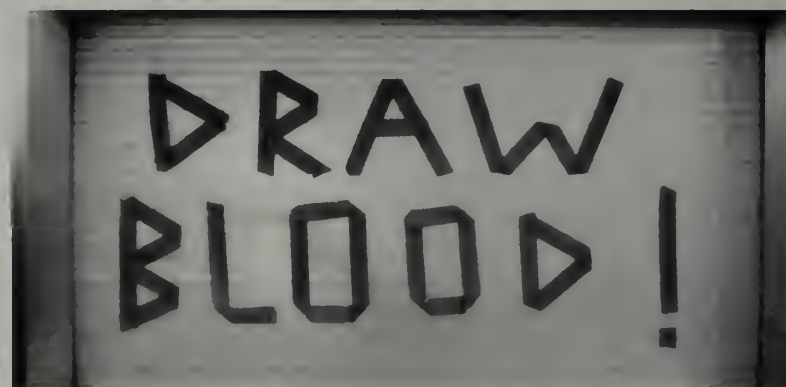

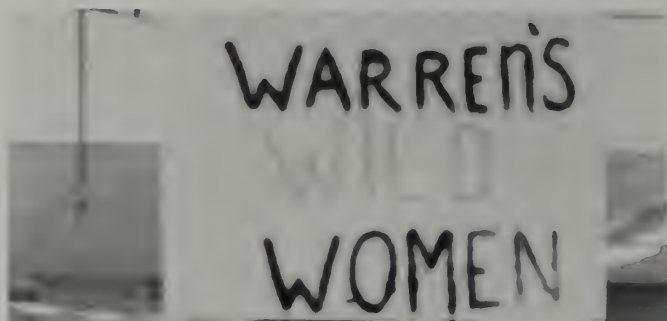

"Won't you charleston with me?"

SENIOR CLASS BREAKFAST

At 8:30 on an October morning, a sleepy-eyed senior class stumbled into the cafeteria, not for the usual coffee cake and fruit punch, but instead for a catered breakfast consisting of pancakes, sausages, eggs, ETC.! After fortifying ourselves, the class prepared for the BIG GAME. But first we posed for the BIG class picture and then the "GREEN WAVE" flooded the football field.

POWDER PUFF

The 1988-89 Powder Puff team was wonderfully coached by Greg Warren, Brad Pindel, Mike Shea, and Tom Bean. "Warren's Wild Women," Pezo's Playmates," "Shea's Sweet Things," and "Fumba's Fantasies" went down but not without a fighting battle. Although the cheerleaders kept "accidentally" interfering, it was nothing compared to the length of Grady's and other's ropes. The game ended with the girls pig-piling several unsuspecting members of the opposition.

FACES IN THE CROWD

SENIOR BANQUET

"CHANGES"

The Class of '89 Senior Banquet was the best ever! The theme "Changes" was quite appropriate considering one of the main events was a slide show featuring all of us as "tots." Jack Thornton did a great job as our M.C. Entertainment was provided by the Dance Band as Sue, Joyce, and Denise sang. The highlight of the evening had to be "Novel Quest!" Guys wearing lipstick and girls wearing bowties trampled Dr. Gearon. His life was endangered while teams tried desperately to win points. Thanks to all who helped make the night such a success.

PROM

PRETTY IN PINK

This year's prom was held at the Sheraton-Tara in Braintree on May 19th. The dance was a super affair as all the elegantly-dressed couples danced to the theme "Don't You Forget About Me." Sandra Imbornone was crowned prom queen with Felicia Barnes, Leslie Carver, Diana Alvear, and Denise Pinel as members of her court. The Junior Court consisted of Ann Curley, Michelle Suffredini, Kristen Keller and Katina Muir. Thanks to Mr. Baker and to the Junior Class for making the night a great event!

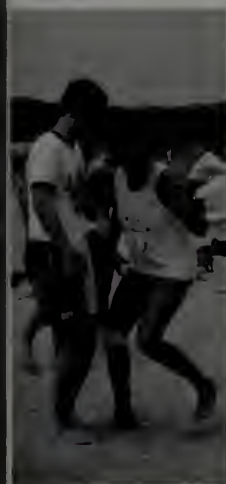

BEACH BLANKET BINGO

The Senior Class trekked out to Crane's Beach for a day of fun in the sun and for a clam bake. Although the weather did not cooperate, everyone found ways of entertaining themselves. Everything from volleyball and frisbee to Red Rover and horse racing was played. A few "unsuspecting" sunbathers even went for a swim!

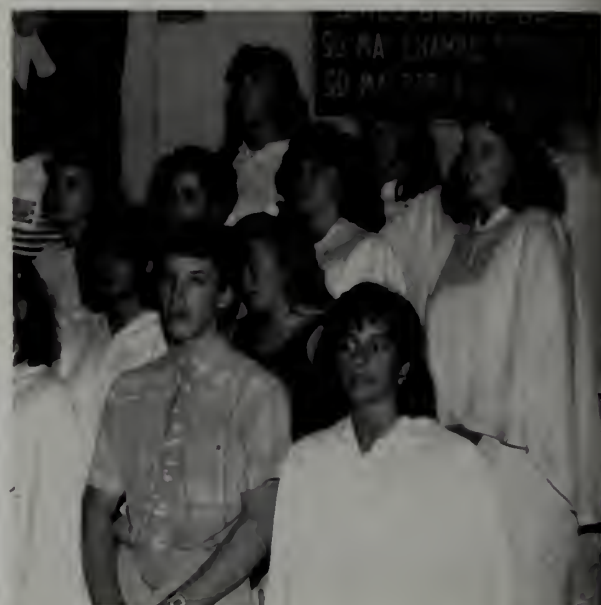

CLASS DAY

A TOUCH OF CLASS

Class Day 1989 was held on a beautiful June morning. Awards for academics, athletics, service and leadership were handed out to members of the Senior Class. The highlight of the morning was the dedication of the 1989 Green Years to Mr. Peter Case. Graduates, family, friends and faculty continued the morning's festivities by attending a luncheon served in the cafeteria, decorated with - what else? - green and white balloons!

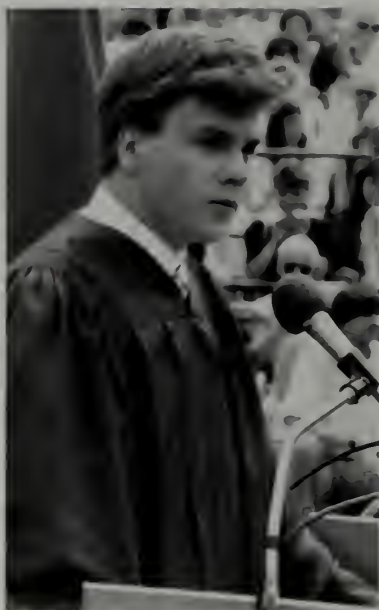

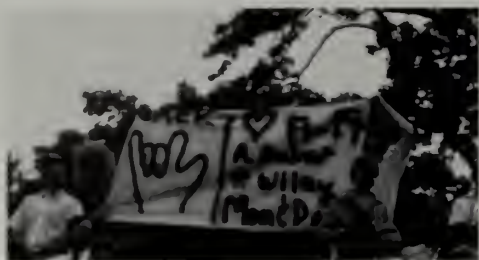

GRADUATION

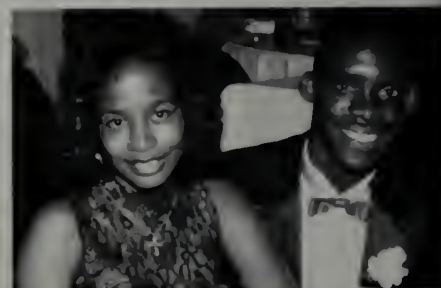

BREAKING AWAY

The fourth of June, the day we had all been waiting for, had finally arrived. Not sure whether it was going to be rainy or sunny, we hurried through the ceremony. And then the rain came down and the fire works went up! It was with mixed emotions that we said our goodbye's and pulled out of the parking lot - this time as WHS graduates!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1989

We, the members of the Class of 1989 of Westwood High School, Westwood, Massachusetts, county of Norfolk, make this will and revoke all previous wills and codicils.

FIRST

We leave to the Class of 1990 all those college applications and a year of living dangerously.

SECOND

We leave to the Class of 1991 the Junior/Senior Prom.

THIRD

We leave to the Class of 1992 to their own sophomoric behavior.

FOURTH

We leave the to the Class of 1992 a handbook detailing proper behavior and with specific instructions with the intent of getting them off to a good start.

FIFTH

SIXTH

We nominate PHILLIP F. FLAHERTY, principal of Westwood High School, executor of this will. We have signed and sealed this will on the 4th day of June, 1989.

JULIE MORRISON, President
Class of 1989

I, T.A., leave to next year's hockey team strict orders not to lose to Holliston, and "Good Luck" for 7 in-a-row AND the state championship.

I, Alison, leave to Kara a two week vacation in Florida with no sunscreen.

I, Alison, leave to Aqua the fun and boys of the summer of 1988.

I, Diana Alvear, leave to Tanya M. my stuffed animals and to Pilgrim, I leave my brother. Linda, I leave someone who I can share a secret with.

I, Jennifer Aquilina, leave to Ed McGowan and Kara O'Donnell a lifetime membership to Workout Plus and to Kara 50 spf sunscreen.

I, Joyce Bain, leave to Don, Jue, Randy, and Chris² something to shake.

I, Felicia D. Barnes, leave to Leslie Tench Central Square on the Red Line and _____'s prom dress that was too small.

I, John Joseph Barucci III, leave to Robert Edmond O'Hara 4 inflatable friends to keep him company in times of loneliness.

I, Tom Bean, leave to the English wing teachers peace and quiet, for now.

I, Lisa Bier, leave to Kelly Crossland a souped-up 1977 AMC Pacer GT.

I, Brenda Bruno, leave to Mr. Ducheneau all my tardy notes.

I, Mark Buonagurio, leave to Miss Tieri a copy of the Rolling Stones "Nineteenth Nervous Breakdown."

I, Wendy Cain, leave to Nannette yet another year of Wednesday nights with Mrs. T.

I, Patty Cakridas, leave to Gina Allen a package of 24 serenity diapers.

I, James Carty, leave to Mike Fountaine all the good times and hope for many more in the future.

I, Leslie Carver, leave to Ed McGowan all the oranges he can possibly eat; and Laurie Sullivan a small pair of earrings.

I, Skip Child, leave to Mr. Walsh a lot of thanx for helping me.

I, Colonie Chipley, leave to the marching band another 84 rolls of toilet paper. Have fun!!

I, Stephen Colbert, leave to Tom Lee a stack of late notes and a cup of coffee.

I, Susan Corcoran, leave to Mr. T. and H block Physics a copy of my latest book, Fun with Torque, red lipstick and a jar of vaseline.

I, Kristen Coyne, leave to Mr. Fischler rolls of "nickels and dimes," so this most unforgettable teacher will always remember me.

I, Kelly Crossland, leave to Lisa Bier a Zeppelin from New Hampshire.

I, Craig Dalrymple, leave to Mr. Topalian that the nickname "Topaz" officially be laid to rest.

I, Lisa D., leave to Kristen (Dirt) a platinum gas card for all the cruises the two of us went on.

I, Kirstin Davis, leave to my friends an adventure to Tweeter when we meet again.

I, Mike DiBlasi, leave to Kris White a punch in the shoulder for all our labs she messed up on.

I, Jeff Domina, leave to Michael "Chunky" Churwin twelve dozen onion bagels to be delivered in daily installments of four.

I, Andrea Dorr, leave to Nancy Connors a bottle of Coke, hairspray, and, of course, a jar of vaseline.

I, Lynn C. Duffy, leave to the field hockey team as much fun as we had in our four years and a wrist roll apparatus.

I, Sara Edel, leave to Nanette F. all the figments in the world, psychology class and the Dedham movie theater.

I, Carol Fallon, leave to my friends a French braid anytime.

I, Melissa Fannon, leave to Mr. Relleva an "all day" eye wash and nuclear shower in the chem. lab.

I, Mark Finneran, leave to Richie Glynn all the great memories of his dog Meko.

I, Patty Flaherty, leave to Leslie Bride continuous fun-filled Wednesday nights of Chorale.

I, Lesley Foscaldo, leave to Judy Rich our prize heater. It helps when idiots use the door in the dead of winter.

We, The Gang, leave to Bobert the red-headed woman of your dreams. We leave to Jon Hurvitz $128.44 and a free weekend to Sunday River, Maine. Luv, "The Gang."

I, Dickie Gibbons, leave to Gregg Giambanco a towel to wipe the brown spot off his nose.

I, Richard Glynn, leave to Mike Grady, Craig Dalrymple, and Dickie Gibbons, the memory of how annoying I was to them in soccer, basketball, and golf.

I, Denise Grady, leave to all my friends an invitation to party in my dorm any time they want.

I, Mike Grady, leave to Steve Lund, Brian Welby, Pezo one empty egg carton.

I, Pam H., leave to Jen and Tanya more guys to deal with.

I, Stephanie Harkness, leave to future Westwood High girls' varsity soccer teams enough spandex to keep them warm during all of their November tournament games.

I, Cliff Hearn, leave to Tina D. good grades.

I, Jeanne Heneberry, leave to the field hockey team RUST-may they wear it better than we did; and to my Ecce buddies a carriage in a ditch and permission to leave class early.

I, Sandra Imbornone, leave to all the future girls' varsity basketball players a duty of class, hard work, motivation, and respect for everything that is done for you as well as for everyone on the team-including the coach. "Good Luck" and no more letters.

We, Jill and Jeff, leave to Peter Hughes protection for Fifi.

I, Sean Jones, leave to the junior class, the opportunity to land a story on the front pages of the Transcript.

I, Alice Joyce, leave to Dannielle Ford, Patty Cakridas and Kirsten Davis my car keys, driving skills and any sandwich bags I can find.

I, Jen K., leave to Tanya a remote control like the one you gave me, and my deepest thanks for being the best friend ever.

I, Hania Khuri, leave to Mom and Dad my love and appreciation for everything you've done for me!

I, Chris Kremer, leave to Jeannine a blond strip of hair.

I, Kerry Krukonis, leave to Lori Thornton the memories of our E block free block.

I, Tommy Lee, leave to Steve Colbert my pillow, my blanket, and my alarm clock.

I, Madeline Lehmann, leave to Carolyn Rago and Lori Thornton my #18 soccer shirt. Good Luck, guys- and get a few red cards.

I, Bruce MacKinnon, leave to the Class of '89 my ID's to anyone who can find them.

I, Sue MacQueen, leave to Brian Conley and Chris Lennon the excitement of H Block Career Center. Stop using the phone, you guys!

I, Kristine MacWhinnie, leave to Nannette and Jason all my English and math classes.

I, Kate Malloy, leave to Trish the keys to the luxury automobile and my license. (So you won't have to be a bus queer-0)

I, Tanya Massaro, leave to Jen Keller call-waiting, a sloppy-French-fry detector, a Brigham's uniform, all our crazy memories.

I, Tanya Massaro, leave to Salty a huge thank you note for all your advice, and a badge of courage for enduring you know what!

I, Tanya Massaro, leave to the American Studies Group another trip to New York with Mr. Milan, memories of night-time Brown sessions.

We, the Math Family (Mel, Jen, Aow, Sue, Skip), leave to Mr. Pender a big can of Coke.

I, Scott Mazzola, leave to anyone new to this school all the luck in the world in finding and keeping good friends.

I, Kristin McCusker, leave to Lori O'Brien a tape to all my stupid stories so she feels at home at college.

I, Neil Edward McGee, leave to the Wolverine Marching Band a marble, a puppy's neck, and eyes with pride.

I, Ed McGowan, leave to little Jen A. a tight sweater and a pair of spandex.

I, Julie Morrison, leave to Mr. Milan my enlightened ideas and an "ERA YES" pin.

I, Thomas Murray, leave to the Class of '90' good luck on football and softball.

I, Edward Nguyen, leave to Mark Rutstein some time in life to relax and loosen up.

We, Nicole and Seona, leave to Kevin Mahoney our sacred, yet hardly used lockers, of great worth and distinction.

I, Colin Norton, leave to everyone nothing.

I, KO, leave to AOW an umbrella for her puddle, or in her case a shower!

I, Charles O'Brien, leave to the future students at WHS as much snow it takes to get a day off from school.

I, Linda O'Connor, leave to my sister, Michelle, a whole new wardrobe and all the happiness and love in the world, Love ya!

I, Kara O'Donnell, leave to Milani Guerra an L.O., an invitation to NU, and someone else's shoulder to cry on.

I, Kara O'Donnell, leave to Jen Aquilina an air plane ticket back to Boston for when she needs one of those "talks"!

I, Edward Pallis, leave to the underclassmen the snow days we did not receive.

I, Denie Pinel, leave to Linda Randlett someone to eat lunch with at college.

I, Blake Poreda, leave to future managers courage and patience every day after school until May.

I, Julie Power, leave to Jane Sweeney and Laurie Sullivan enough aquarium tickets so they will always have plenty to scalp.

I, Linda Randeltt, leave to Jan and Lisa good luck for next year-Do it like they did in '84!!

I, Linda Randlett, leave to Jen more bells and plays!

I, Linda Randlett, leave to Humpty an alarm system for his pumpkins.

I, Carolyn Reissfelder, leave to next year's girls' basketball team a year with no problems and no typists.

I, Rosalind Rooney, leave to the Gang a blur, a flash of red hair-and everything else with the non-stop laughter to remember me.

I, Kim Salett, leave to Camille Pap Scott. My heart goes flutter, flutter.

I, Debbie Schreiber, leave to Amy Friedman a "relaxing" senior year with fewer responsibilities.

I, Jen Scibilla, leave to Kara Conney Goonie Groupie, bench warmer award, and the best of luck next year.

I, Michael Shea, leave to the class of '91 boys, The Buzz Test.

I, Sue Sheppard, leave to the school or anyone else that wants them, my smelly clothes in my gym locker.

We, Seona and Nicole, leave to Jen Rzucidlo our hard earned and well deserved reputations for "showing up."

I, Jennifer Spann, leave to Tom Brady a Hello Kitty lunchbox.

I, Lia Stivaletta, leave to Chippy's roommate sanity and earplugs.

I, Laurie Sullivan, leave to Julie Power 1 million apologies for all the times I had an obnoxious comment (which you shouldn't take seriously anyway).

I, Jon Thiel, leave to Walter Boehl, some funky cold Madina, because he needs it.

I, Jack Thornton, leave to my little sister, Lori the keys to H.R. and to the Black Jack House. Go nuts.

I, Jennifer Tretter, leave to Nell DeAngelis the Fall.

I, Greg Warren, leave to Dal a large steak and cheese sub with lettuce and mayo from D'Angelos.

I, Brian Welby, leave to Spelly, the cage in which I protected.

I, Kris White, leave to my sister Jill, the role as Queen Bee at home, and to my mom, sole possession of the mother role in our house.

I, Vilmore Wiltshire, leave to Metco, the loneliness, frustrations, heartaches, upset stomachs, homework, no free time, 45 minute bus rides, 6:00 a.m. wake ups, and Scott.

I, Rosemarie van Zadelhoff, leave to Marc the up and coming lead role in "Revenge of the Nerds Part 3."

I, Lynne Zouranjian, leave to the gang an award for the most who sat at one lunch table.

HAVE A GEM OF A YEAR!
BEST OF LUCK TO THE
CLASS OF '89

OUR BEST TO YOU.

Wherever you're headed, we want to wish you the very best. We also have a suggestion or two that will help in the future.

IF YOU'RE GOING TO COLLEGE.

You'll benefit from our helpful College Credit program at South Shore Bank. See us for GSL Loans if you're a senior looking to finance your college education. Also discover our PLUS and VALUE Loans for both you and your family.

IF YOU'RE GOING TO WORK.

Our Starter Kit is designed to help you do just that. Get a VISA® Card (free for the first year), a checking or NOW Account, $300 of overdraft protection, a special rate on auto loans and a free Multibanker® 24/Yankee 24® card.

For more facts, visit your nearest South Shore Bank office.
